

Halifax Dartmouth Bridge Commission

Annual Report under Section 18 of the Public Interest Disclosure of Wrongdoing Act

March 31, 2021

The Public Interest Disclosure of Wrongdoing Act was proclaimed into law on December 20, 2011. The Commission has adopted a Wrongdoing Disclosure Policy that mirrors the Act.

The Policy provides for Commission employees to be able to come forward if they reasonably believe that a wrongdoing has been committed or is about to be committed and they are acting in good faith.

The Policy also protects employees who do disclose from reprisals, by enabling them to lay a complaint of reprisal with the Labor Board. A Wrongdoing for the purposes of the Policy is:

- a) a contravention of provincial or federal laws or regulations
- b) a misuse or gross mismanagement of public funds or assets
- c) an act or omission that creates an imminent risk of a substantial and specific danger to the life, health or safety of persons or the environment, or
- d) directing or counselling someone to commit a wrongdoing
